

INVITATION

The Institute of History, Research Centre for the Humanities, Hungarian Academy of Sciences invites you to the international conference

Migration History: European and Transatlantic Perspectives

which is attached to the program of the General Assembly of the International Committee of Historical Sciences, hosted by the Institute of History, Research Centre for the Humanities, Hungarian Academy of Sciences.

Thursday, 6 September 2012

Conference Venue: Research Centre for the Humanities, Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Jacobin Hall

H-1014 Budapest, Országház utca 30.

PROGRAM

9.00 Welcome, Opening

Chair: Attila Pók (Deputy Director, Institute of History, Research Centre for the Humanities, Hungarian Academy of Sciences)

PÁL FODOR (Director General, Research Centre for the Humanities, Hungarian Academy of Sciences)

JÓZSEF PÁLINKÁS (President, Hungarian Academy of Sciences)

MARJATTA HIETALA (President, International Committee of Historical Sciences)

9.30 Press Briefing

10.00–12.00 Panel I: Concepts and Spaces of Migration

Chair: Tibor Frank (Budapest)

10.00 David Feldman (Birkbeck, University of London): Migration Policy from the Old Poor Law to the Welfare State

10.20 Dariusz Stola (Polish Academy of Sciences, Institute of Political Studies; Centre for Migration Research, Warsaw): International Migrations in Central Europe in the 20th Century

10.40 Balázs Ablonczy (Institut Hongrois de Paris): A la place des Etats Unis – Emigration hongroise vers la France entre les deux guerres. Politique, économie, réseaux

11.00 Balázs Balogh (Institute of Ethnography, Research Centre for the Humanities, Hungarian Academy of Sciences): Ethnicity, Identity and Migration Patterns in Hungary (1910–2012)

11.20 Discussion

12.00 Lunch break

13.30–15.30 Panel II: Exile and Forced Migration

Chair: Dariusz Stola (Warsaw)

13.30 Stefan Troebst (University of Leipzig): The Discourse on Forced Migration and European Culture of Remembrance

13.50 Heléna Tóth (University of Munich, Centre for Advanced Studies): The Historian's Scales: Political Exile in the Second Half of the 19th Century

14.10 Matěj Spurný (Czech Academy of Sciences): Czech and German Memories of Forced Migration (1938–1948)

14.30 Tibor Frank (School of English and American Studies, Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest): Double Exile: Migrations of Jewish–Hungarian Professionals through Germany to the United States (1919–1945)

14.50 Discussion

15.30 Coffee/tea break

16.00–17.30 Panel III: Patterns of Migrations

Chair: David Feldman (London)

16.00 Attila Melegh (Demographic Research Institute, Corvinus University of Budapest): Migration Profiles in Eastern and South-Eastern European Countries in the Last Fifty Years

16.20 Annemarie Steidl (University of Vienna): Relations among Internal, Continental, and Transatlantic Migration in Late Imperial Austria

16.40 András Kováts (Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Institute for Ethnic and National Minority Studies): Inside Out: Public Perception of Immigrants' Access to Welfare in Selected European Countries

17.00 Discussion

